mules. Centennial year you know. -We would call the attention of the Cemetery As ociation to the condition of the Summer House. We think a coat of paint would add greatly to its appearance.

-- The cornice of the U.S. Post Office has been put up and presents a fine appearance, the cap stones over the cornice weigh five tons each. Quite a crowd gathered yesterday to see them going up.

-Don't fail to read what our enterprising merchants Messrs. Petty & Jones have to say in the advertising column, their stock is large and varied, they buy for cash, buy largely and give their customers the benefit of the discount. Country merchants would do well to examine their extensive stock.

-The long, tall obn which adorn the walks around the Capitol and other street in the city should be cut down. See to it, Mr. Commissioner, for they will soon go to seed and the wind will carry them all over the city making thousands grow where only one grew before.

-Those who were bold enough to venture out to Oakwood Sunday evening were caught in the severe rain that fell, the shelter near was the little summer house which a . commodates about eight, on this occasian however, the number sheliered was about eighteen. An omnibus was sent for, and after remaining about two hours, the relief came. Pot up a few more summer houses. --Whenever you notice a man leaning over the railing, looking at Over Exertion." Every evening can be seen ranging round Lumsden's store the aged and the young-business is dull they say, and they just came to see Mr. Bob Lumsden squirt water through that new kind o'concern for watering flowers, washing off glass, &c. Bob commences with a view, he throws wa'er in every direction, every eye is lif ed, every face is bright and happy, presently a dog appears, Bob lets him have it, the crowd can't stand it any longer -"gimme just one squirt," shouts a little boy in the crowd. "Mr. Lumsden," shoutsan old man, "be kind enough to let me examine that concern"-he takes it-he commences to grind-he ground and ground and stopped and rested, talked sweetly to himself of his unexpected happiness, a little fellow was standing out in the sun drying off, and making faces at him, wishing be was a man so he could put a head on him, but man can't stand everything, and fell on his left ear, and had to be hauled home in a dray.

Diabolical Meanness. The once pretty little summer house situated in the eastern part of the Confederate Cemetery has been disfigured with pencil marks and cut up by mean and devlish young men who if found out should be severely thrashe', then locked up and fed on bread and water for a month. It is a shame for the community that a parcel of such mean wicked-designing and scoundrely boys who insult the name, by calling themselves young men, should be allowed to write the names of young ladies in such public places and then couple them with vulgar expressions. It is a disgrace and we call upon the proper authorities in the name of decency to find them out and bring them to punishment. This is intended for those who did it, we care not who they are. A man or boy with a single spark of the gentleman in him would not think of such a disgraceful act.

Centennial Stamped Envelope. We were shown yesterday by Mr. F. A. Olds the Centenn'al 3 cent stamped envelope. The design is very unique and beautiful. Democratic Meeting-Cary Township

Pursuant to call the Democratic Conservative voters of Cary township, met in Council at Cary on Saturday, May 27th. The meeting was organized by calling the Hon. D. W. Courts to the chair, and W. E. Peil was requested to act as Secretary. The objects of the meeting having been explained. The chairman designated A. G. Jones, J. Q. Williams and Solomon King a committee to suggest suitable names for delegates to the County Convention. The committee after consultation reported the following list, which was unanimously adopted, viz : Mesers. D. W. Courts, W. E. Pell, W. J. Holleman, Gibeon Martin, C. H. Clarke, Alvin Bolts, L. H. Crowder, P. A. Sorrell, C. Holleman, .Wm. Gulley, Jas W. Young, A. K. Clements, W. H. Beckwith, J. B. Steadman, Jas. R. Page, Jacob Mayner, Wiley Baucom, H. P. Guess, Lewis Page, W. M. Sorrell, J. H. Lowe, R. H. Jones, Young Stone, A. B. Yates, W. D. Weathers, N. A. Ramsay, Jno. Thompson, Kinion Jones, Frank Steadman, Thos. Whitaker and J.

R. Young. On motion, Messrs. A. G. Jones, J. Q. Williams and Solomon King were added to the list.

On motion of W. E. Pell, the following gentlemen were appointed to co-operate with the Township Executive Committee to secure a complete registration of all Conservative voters who have recently became of age and those who failed to register in the late election, to point out illegal voters, and to furnish means for the transportation of such votes to the polls as are enable to make such accumulations for themselves and for other purposes. Committee: W. E. Pell, A. G. Jones, J. Q. Williams, Hilliard Beckwith, Howard Lowe, Dallas Alford, J. R. Young, Pascol Sorrell, Wyatt Holleman, Major Clark, C. Holeman. J. W. Young, W. M. Sorrell and Young Stone. On motion the Secretary was requested to furnish copies of the proceedings of this meeting to the Raleigh Sentinel and News with the request that they publish the same. On motion the meeting adjourned.

Capitol Beauties. Shaded walks, verdant turf, beautiful flowers, giant oaks, underneath of which playful children disport themselves—these make a picture rare in The square might have been larger, the area might have been greater, but the people of Raleigh have a gem of which they might be proud, for nature has painted it with its brightest colors, and the heart must be cold that does not warm up under the influences of the spring inspiration. A suggestion has been thrown out to adorn the beautiful grounds of the Capitol with the effigies of the distinguished men of the State, crowned -it may be overawed, by one whom this continent, in the fullness of his character has given no equal. Let not the idea be abandoned, for though in the depths of poverty and under the load of debt, patriotism and reverence for departed worth become secondary to considerations of selfprotection, yet, neither of those feelings are dead, and will assert themelves when freedom of action is consistent with freedom of thought. Let the thought live and let it find shape. Centennial Goose and Gander.

Commissioner Andrews, who lives in the extreme western part of the city, borrowed a Bohemian goose and gander from Prof. Weir, who lives in the eastern part of the city. In due course of time the goose hatched out five goslins, they were three weeks old last Saturday, and on the morning of that day the goose and goslins walked out of the yard led by the gander; they marched through the city (a distance of a mile and a half) and went to Prof. Weir's where they took breakfast, After walking around for about five hours they marched back again and took their supper and odings.

A Flower that Changes Its Color.

Botany is a division of natural science which treats of plants, and a study of Vegetable Physiology must be the foundation of botanical knowledge—a study only possibly by the improvements in the microscope and in organic chemistry. As plants are not scattered haphazard, over the earth, totanical geology must be studied, and, with this, plant-history. Botany may be applied to the wants of every-day life, as in Agriculture, Horticulture, or Medical Botany. Animals often exhibit a narvelous instinct selecting medical herbs, and an observation of their habits has often, eyen in the present time, led to most v-luable discove-ies. And should man, with his knowledge and appliances, fail to discover less than the brute? It is of Medical Botany we should speak, or of the Hepstine Plant, discovered in Southern Nubia, the Flower of which changes its color with every change of the atmosphere. The remarkable changes and variations of this Plant and Flower have been for years our special study, resulting in the discovery of its possession of wonderful medical properties, the existence and value of which have heretofore be n entirely unknown to medical's After much labor and scientific investigation, we have succeeded in extracting its peculiar medicinal principles, which is a specific and cure for all diseases of Liver, Stomach and Bowels; a permanent cure for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Spleen, Constipation, Jaundice, and all Billious Complaints. Of course we cannot send a living Flower of this Plant to all who read of Hepatine; but to all who will send their address to Merrell & Gouden, Philadelphia, Ps., with a three-cent stamp for return postage, we will send free a fac-simile of the Flower, that will change its color just the same as the rea Heratine Flower. CHARLOTTE, N. C. May 25, '76.

Messrs. Editors:—It appears from the papers that the railroads return visitors to the college commencements this year free of charge, except the Wilmington & Weldon road. The public would like to know why that road refuses this usual favor to a great public interest. Has that road no concern for the good of the State, or do the controlling powers thereof have anything to gain by a course so unusual? The college interest of North Carolina is a very great one, and any road that a very great one, and any road that has received as much state aid as the Wilmington & Weldon, must cherish very peculiar business maximis to utterly ignore the very greatest interest the State has.

PUBLIUS.

Mr. Editor :- Agriculture and com merce are twin sisters, not only to in name, and theory, but in fact, and are as inseparable as were the Siamese twins, thang and Eng. Commerce is born of agriculture, is its child—bone of her bone and flesh of her flesh. They are dependant one upon the other. The ir interests are mutual, not antagonistic. They help each other, they develope each other. They are necessary to each other. Strike one a mortal blow and you kill both. No community or nation can both. No community or nation can become wealthy or powerful without commerce. These axioms and principles are so true, so ancient and so patent to all intelligent minds that it seems like going back to the A B C of human history to announce them, and yet it is a sad truth that in this year of grace one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, it is not only needful that they should be re-announced, but the time has come for the press and all who love these two great supports and pillars of the State to speak out for the recognition and enforcement of these great primal and important truths and principles. The business relations of the farmer and the merchant not only in this city, but in all the towns and cities of our land are so important and so closely united together as to con-stitute the splendid fabric uron which rests our American civilization—s civilization which has mad us great and powerful and given us mong all the nations of the earth.

And it is this civilization just as it is with the union of the farmer and the merchant that will carry us forward to the first in the rank among nations if we are true to it. Look at England, what a splendid agricultural and commercial system, unitedly working out the highest and grandest civilization that the world ever saw. When therefore a man or a community of men array themselves proclaiming themselves teachers of a better system, when they seek to break up this union by stepping in between, and to justify the act, defarmer and the merchant and thus sow the seeds of distrust and discord where there was unity and harmony such a movement, is, to say the least of it, one of great danger to these two great pillars upon which rests all our State and National glory, and every man and women who is giving aid and support to principles such as these, is surely undermining the very foundations upon which rests all of our material prosperity and happiness-for it is a question enter tained by some of our profoundest thinkers, whether the disturbance of the close and intricate relations of these two great and all important in-terests and classes, has not had much to do with the present financial em-barrassment and di-tress now prevailing throughout our country. The point we make is that it is im-possible to divorce these great in-terests and that all attempts to acoint we make is that it is imcomplish it must bring disaster upon both, AMICUS.

Radical Meanness We learn that John Renfrow, route agent on the Weldon & Peters-burg railroad, has received orders from the department not to leave the road under any circumstances. The order was sent by the instigation of John Hyman, who is a candidate for re-election to Congress, to prevent Renfrow, who is the strongest man in his district, from obtaining the nomination which is to come off at Goldsboro in June. The chances for a white man to go to Congress in the Second District were in our opinion rather slim and we doubt if even Gov. Brogden would stand a chance. Africa in-tends to be represented by Ethiopians and though white men may equalize with them, nigger will stick up for nigger.

Superintendent of Public Instruction MEBANEVILLE, N. C., ? May 29th, 1876.

Editor of the News: DEAR SIR :- I see in the NEWS of the 27th inst., that some one writing from "Bingham School, Mebaneville, N. C." mentions my name in con nection with the nomination for Superintendent of Public Instruction. This was done entirely without my knowledge and is, I suppose, a school boy's jest. I have no political aspira-tions in this connection, being already more than fully occupied in duties connected with education.

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

A Convention of the Democratic Conservative voters of the Fourth Congressional District will be held in the city of Raleigh on Tuesday the 13th day of June next, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress and a Presidential Elector, and selecting two delegates to the St. Louis Convention. A full attendance is earnestly desired. Each county will be entitled to one vote for every one hundred yotes and fracmon in 1872 By order of the District Executive

H. A. LONDON, JR., Chairman. March 31st, 1876.

CALL FOR A COUNTY CONVEN-TION.

As Chairman, I am instructed by the Executive Committee of the Democratic-Conservative party of Wake county to give notice that there will be held a Convention of the Democratic-conservative voters of the county at the Court House on the 10th day of June next at 12 m., for the purpose of sending delegates to the State and Congressional District Conventions and to consider the propriety of nominating candidates for public officers. I am further instructed to call upon the chairman of the various township committees to hold meetings in their respective townships on the 27th day of May in order to appoint delegates to this convention. W. W. JONES.

Chairman. THE famine of small change in the North is distressing. We are doubly distressed in the South, for there is a famine here of change both small and great.

To-Morrow is Commencement Day at Chapel Hill. A large attendance of citizens will give great encouragement to those who are laboring to restore the institution to its pristine usefulness and glory.

Seven million dollars of silver coin has been issued, and yet the American people are not satisfied, but like the insatiable daughters of the horseleech, continue to cry, Give, give. A bill has been reported in Congress asking the issue of an additional $20,-000,000 in silver coin.

THE National Republican informs the public that there is "a strong feeling among Southern Republicans generally, in favor of the nomination of Judge Settle, of North Carolina, to be the Republican candidate for Vice-President;" but adds, "there is good authority for the statement that Judge Settle would not accept the nomination if it should be tendered to him." Because, says the Republican, "he (Judge Settle) believes that no man who fought under the Confederate flag should be entrusted with such high honors and duties as those which attach to the office of Vice-President." Such modesty is no doubt pleasing to Republicans who now keep up the war beneath the ensanguin'd folds of the Bloody Shirt; but we think they might for give this repentant ex-rebel for the fighting he did under the Stars and plin county, was an aspirant for the Congressional nomination in his District. A persistence in seeking the nomination was calculated to somewhat distract the party. What should be do? He was quite as worthy of the honor as other aspirants: he had many riends who were desirous of seeing him elevated to a prominent position; he might have secured the nomination; but was it best for his party to seek it? That was the question with him. He decided it in a way that does him great credit.

When the Democratic convention of Duplin County met in Kenansville the other day the following communication from Col. Allen was read, and, on motion, was made a part of the record:

To the Democratic Conservative Party of Duplin county:

I respectfully request my friends to consider me no longer an aspirant for congressional honors in this District. If sacrifices are to be made for the harmony of the party and the good of the country, I take pleasure in announcing that my resources are not yet entirely exhausted. I can mot yet entirely exhausted. I can make them now, as heretofore, for the benefit of the country. Selfish ambitton or personal aspirations shall never permit me to embarrass my party friends or endanger the harmony of the Democratic party, especially in the county of Duplin. The success of the Democratic Concoess of the Democratic Con servative party I regard as essential to the preservation of good govern-ment in the United States, and the perpetuation of civil and religious liberty in this our old Homestead and Household. I beg that my name may not be used to disturb the harmony of the party. I desire to engage in no unpleasant controversy with those was ought to be my friends. I am grateful for the con fidence still repostd in me by my friends, and hope I shall always prove true to them and to my country.

Very respectfully, Kenansville, N C., W A. ALLEN,

May 23, 1876. These are noble words. They preathe the spirit of patriotism that some tell us has died out in the land. We commend them to every aspirant for political bonors in our torders. Such brave words as these, "Selfish ambition or personal aspirations shall never permit me to mbarrass my party friends or endanger the harmony of the Democratic party," should be treasured up by every Democrat in the State who seeks a nomination for office.

The Democrats of Duplin properly appreciated Col. Allen's course The following resolution, introduced by J. D. Stanford, E q, was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the patriotic course of Col. W. A. Allen pursued by him in the ranks of the Democratic Con-servative party, of this county, entitles him to the lasting gratitude of the party and endears him more strongly than ever to the affections and confidence of the people.

If this bright example is followed by others similarly situated, the good feeling and harmonious action so essential to the success of the Conservative party of North Carolina in the coming campaign will be in a great measure secured at the start.

A STRIKE IN SOUTH CAROLINA A strike, which bids fair to end in bloodshed, was inaugurated last Tuesday among the negro laborers of the rice fields along the Combahee river in lower South Carolina. The strike is for higher wages. The idea with the disaffected laborers seems to be not to work for the white man except on such terms as they (the laborers) may fix.

The strike at first was moderate in character. No depredations were made at first on either persons or property. But as the movement spread from plantation to planta tion, from the Combahee to the Ashepoo, it grew in numbers, force and violence. Non-strikers were driven from their work in the fields; some were forced to defend their lives against the mob; others were whipped for refusing to join the rioters, and all were terrified. The strikers have cut many dams on the Ashepoo and flooded the crops with water, and the work of destruction seems but begun, as the spirit of violence among them is growing every day. Armed with clubs, they go in bands of from fifty to a hundred from place to place inciting other negroes against the whites. The white people in that section are at the mercy almost of these black savages. In the locality where the strike originated there are about fifteen hundred colored men to sixty whites. Governor Chamberlain was appealed to for protection by the non-strikers and citizens generally.

A Trial Justice named R. F. Colcock was appointed at once to quell the disturbance. As soon as this was known a Radical politician of the incendiary class issued his orders and had negro emissaries dispatched in all directions, patroling the county, delying the Governor, and swearing vengeance against Colcock and his family if he dared to ect. Here the matter rests accordTHE FOURTH OF JULY.

The authorities of the Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta Railroad are moving their shops from Wilming-ton to Florence. The Wilmington Journal says that from eight to ten housand dollars a month are paid to he employees. Add to this the purchase of timber and material, and the sum lost to Wilmington yearly will between $150,000 and $200,000. This will be a feast for Florence. candidate. The election Thursday virtually seals the fate of the Radical party of this city, and it is very doubtful if they ever nominate another ticket to run against the Conservatives.-Nor-

Senator Cameron objects to Bristow. The Harrisburg Telegraph says: "We implacably object to Bristow's locality We will never vote for any man for President who had the misfortune to be born south of the slave line."

Henry Watterson, the brilliant ditor of the Louisville Courier Journal, is placed at the head of the Kentucky delegation, and this means, if it mean anything, that the delegation is not unfriendly to the nomination of Tilden.—Wit. Star.

ed to be 664 years. In order to secure the Commission from imposition by means of fraud-ilent ho ders of free season passes, a rule has been a topted which require each person to have a small photo-graph of his face inserted inside the hands mely engraved pass, so that the gate-keepers may see at a glance that the pass has not been transferred.

The question now agitating the minds of the Centennial authorities is, "Will it pay?" A letter from Philadelphia states that up to the present time the visitors have averaged about 12 000 a day, and that in order to make a full return to the toesholders of money subscribed for stock, to say nothing of a divident, the average dally number of paying risitors will have to be about 40,000.

While seventy-two thousand hur dred and twenty-nine [72,729] pay visitors attended at Vienna in th first thirteen days, no less than two hundred and thirty-eight thousand seven hundred and thirty four [238, 734] pay visitors attended the Philadelphia Exhibition in the corresponding period. It will thus be seen that both the aggregate and average number of pay visitors at Philadelphia are already more than three times as great as they were at Vienna

NOON DISPATCHES. Presbyterian Assembly—The South
Wind Llows Pleasantly.

NEW YORK, May 29.-In the Presbyterian Assembly, Rev. Dr. Prime who made a report from the Committee on Correspondence, said that the South wind blew pleasantly this morning, and that the overtures made to the Southern Assembly and adopted by this Assembly had been received by the Southern Assembly in the spirit of gentlemen and christians. (Applause.) Dr. Prime then read the answer of the Southern Assembly. He then continued his report as fo'lows: "The overture of this Assembly having been received by the General Assembly in the South with such a cordial expression of gratification, the Committee recemmend that the same resolution, decla rative of the spirit in which this action is taken, be adopted by this Assembly, viz; in order to show our disposition to remove on our part all real or seeming hinderance to friendly feering, the Assembly explicitly declares that while condemning certain acts and deliverances of the Southern general assembly, no acts or deliverances of the Northern general assembly or of the historial bodies of which the present general assembly is the successor are to be construed or admitted as impugning in any way the christian character of the Southern general assembly." The reading of this resolution was followed by loud applause. Judge Strong moved the adoption of this resolution which he believed would aid in the restoration of the fraternal relations between the two assemblies. all be said, could meet on this common platform without taking back any thing which could not conscientiously be restricted. He hoped that the resolution would be passed by as unanimous standing vote. The Rev. Drs. Fowler and Musgrave spoke in favor of the motion which was then

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, May 29 .- House .-A Mr. Harney who has had charge of the door in the House during two terms of Congress in 1865, testified that he had been in office continuously since 1858, holding different positions, and for which he had no one to recommend him. He made damaging charges against Mr. Kerr, testifying that he paid Mr. Kerr $500 for an office for a Mr. Green, and that shortly thereafter Mr. Green received his commission, and was subsequently cashiered.

Mr. Kerr made a statement to the effect that he did not conscientiously know the witness and had no acquaintance with him, that he did not know six of the doorkeepers of the House, had never exchanged one minute's conversation with the witness, Lever received any money from him or any one else.

The Orator of the Day.

Hon. Daniel Dougherty, of Philaelphia, in a lecture delivered some years ago, said : grand days of orstory are over. The future may give birth to men who shall rank with the greatest orators of the past, for oratory can never be lest while liberty survives. but for all this, its glory, power and price have passed away torever. A power mightier than any army of orators has arisen which has dwarfed their genius and lowered them to which is changing the whole world. The power of oratory sank when the speaks to a thousand; the press to hundreds of thousands—the former rarely, the latter every day. The orator is mortal, the press unfailing; the one speaks to a city, the other to a nation. The words of the orator die with the sound that voices them, the words of the press live forever. The orators are listened to by a few of an evening, and the press send-even their words to the world next day. If the press then does honestly its duty with its far greater powers and will labor for the welfare of the people. for the honor of the nation and the glory of God, we may be content that the days of oratory are Presbyterian Union in Scotland.

The following from the New York Tribune will be red with interest: Sir: A cable message from Thomas Nelson, Edinburg, announces the gratifying intelligence that an or-ganic union was this day consum-mated between the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland and the Reformed Presby: erian, Synod of Scotland. Thus two grand his toric churches, which have long been one in fact, are now one in name Thus, too the mother churches of the Old World pre consolidating their fores for Christ's crown and covenant, thereby setting a glorious example to the divided Presbyterian family in America.

GEORGE H. STUART. PHILADELPHIA, May 25, '76. [The Reformed Prealy erians who have thus united with the Free Church of Scotland are the original Scotch Coveninter. It was the American branch of the same body which expelled Mr, Stuart from its communion for singing hymns. He the whole parent church into the hymn-singing communion.—Ed.]

Death of a Miser.

In the death of John A. Bangle, a well known character, which occur-red on Saturday, 13th instant, the fact has been brought to light that his cry of extreme penury was the result of miserly habits and a disposiresult of misery mouts and a disposi-tion to hoard every penuy that came into his possession. He had in bank and in secret places of deposit thirty-five hundred dollars in money, and yet in spite of this secret hoard he eked out a miserable existence, receiving medical attention and food from the charitably inclined. He was a native of North Carolina and about fifty five years of age, and lived as he died-in want.—Newberry, S.

There has been a remarkable deerease in our imports from Great British during the first four months of this year. Compared with the corresponding period in 1875 cottons bers) 36,187,000 to 27,752,000 yards; liness from 46,428,0 0 to 35,884,000 yards; and silk broadstuffs from 180,-731 to 90,640 yards. Worsted stuffs have likewise decreased from 23,368.-000 to 19,789,000 yards. The iron and steel imports have become almost nominal. These returns, which repesent to a large extent our Spring trade, account in part for the depressed state of British industry.—N. Y. Tribune.

A Tilden and Hendricks tickel would be invincible. So overshadow-ing is the strength of Tilden, as we write, that it would be wise for Goversor Hendricks to cease to oppose him, and take a unanimous nomination for Vice-President. This would give him the Democratic nomination for President four years hence.—
